Dear friend,

Peace Industrial School is one of the projects undertaken by the PEACE TRUST, which is registered non governmental organization established in 1984 at Dindigul. Peace Trust has initiated Peace Industrial School in the year 2000 at Vittalnayakanpatty village, along (NH-7) located at the distance of 15kms from Dindigul . Peace Industrial School is created for the benefit of rural poor youth and ex-child labourers especially in Vedasandur Industrial Zone, which has been declared as backward taluk and drought prone area in Dindigul District.

Peace Industrial School is continuing its service towards social cause to fulfill the basic needs of the unprivileged rural poor youth by giving vocational educational opportunities since 2000. This school has been functioning with the whole hearted and generous support of INDISKA MAGASINET, SWEDEN. Peace Industrial School aims to impart varies skills to the youth for enabling them to stand on their own. The students are admitted in formal one year job oriented vocational courses. The Personality development programes are being carried out, so as to enable the poor rural youth to improve their skills and make them fit for right employment.

We are glad to invite you for the tenth anniversary celebration of the school.

Sincerely yours,
J. Paul Baskar
